Activity 1

Within the lesson we looked at what conflict is and how it gets resolved. You wrote a report as the leader of the United Nations – Mr Ban Ki-Moon. We talked about what the United Nations were and what they did.

TASK: to research the United Nations and answer the questions in detail.

What do the United Nations do?

When was the United Nations set up?

Who are the permanent members of the United Nations?

What do the Security Council do?

Who are the 'Blue Helmets' and what do they do?

Activity 3

Use the blank boxes below to design your own cartoon based around Blood diamonds.

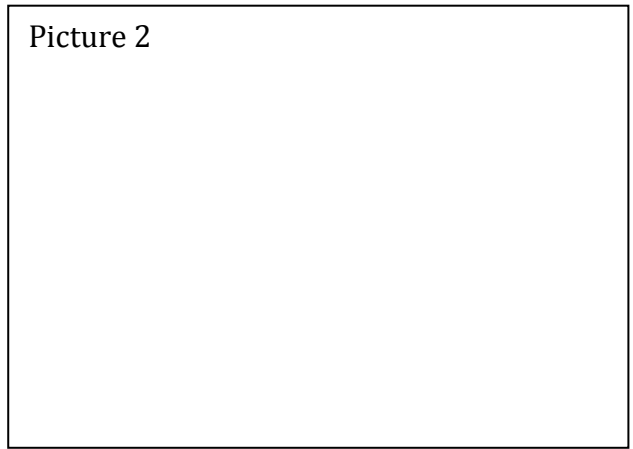

You must include: What blood diamonds are.
Why they are different to normal diamonds.
The effects of blood diamonds.

You must also annotate what the picture is showing. For example, draw arrows explaining what is happening in each picture.

Activity 5

Use the internet to research the answers to the following questions:

What is the total amount of child soldiers in the world?

---

Which countries have the most child soldiers?

---

Why do these countries have child soldiers?

---

---

In your own opinion, why do you think countries like the United Kingdom and America don't have child soldiers, whereas African countries do?

Activity 6

Use the internet to research a picture of the capital of North Korea, Pyongyang.

Draw a sketch of the picture in the box below.

Hint: a sketch doesn't mean you have to include every little detail that is in the picture, but it should show the main features.
